

2023

Spring Workshops

MORE INFO AT TUALATINSWCD.ORG

Land Steward short course

March 1 - May 6. In person and online.

Learn more about your property and develop a practical management plan that will help you turn your vision into a reality. This 9 week, hybrid course from OSU Extension connects you local resources and support.

Weed Wranglin' 101

March 23, 6 - 7pm. Online webinar.

Get your common weeds under control by learning plant terminology and management strategies at this new workshop.

Naturescaping: A Two Part Workshop

Basics: March 27, 6 - 7pm. Online webinar.

Site Design: May 6, 10am - 2pm. In person.

Support wildlife while saving time and money with this sustainable gardening method that centers on native plants.

Weed Watchers

April 12 & May 10, 6 - 7:30pm. In person.

May 22, 6 - 7:30pm. Online webinar.

Join the community effort to stop the spread of harmful weeds. Learn how to identify and report high priority invasive plant species.

Soil School

April 15, 8 - 3pm. PCC Rock Creek.

After a disrupted three years, Soil School is finally back in person. Join us for a day of lectures and demonstrations all about soil!

Tualatin Soil and Water
CONSERVATION DISTRICT

